The Friendly Bay Village

A Profile of the Incorporated Village of Amityville

Welcome! Amityville means “friendly village” and it is a great place in which to live and raise a family or to establish and grow a business. Amityville is known for its charming Victorian houses, picturesque downtown and waterfront amenities. It was first settled in the 1600’s but it was not until March 3rd 1894 that it became the Incorporated Village of Amityville. Located on Long Island's south shore, bordered by the Great South Bay, it has come to be known as the “friendly bay village”. Amityville is one of three villages located within the Town of Babylon. It is about 3.5 square miles in area and the latest U.S. Census (2010) has estimated Amityville’s population at 9,523.

Local businesses and residents alike work together and take pride in the fact that Amityville (an early settlement) is one of the few remaining villages to boast a healthy downtown Central Business District with its own police, fire, and public works departments as well as an independent court and justice system.

The Village is home to many quaint shops and merchants most of which line Broadway and Merrick Road. Being ideally located at the southern tip of Route 110, a major north/south corridor across Long Island, and on the border of Nassau and Suffolk Counties, Amityville is equally attractive to larger retail, service and hi-tech industries. More than 200 retail and service businesses, along with four major banks, a large industrial district and several nearby shopping malls and the only bona fide sail boat builder on Long Island—The Dinghy Shop— provide Amityville and neighboring community residents with myriad goods and services. The Village offers businesses, through the Town of Babylon Community Development program, a 50/50 matching materials grant for refurbishing storefronts.

There are many marine-oriented businesses and recreational activities related to the water which infuse the life of the community. Boat building has been an important part of Amityville's history. Amityville native Wilbur Ketcham designed and built the Narrasketuck sailboat in the Village, and Paul Ketcham, member of one of Amityville's oldest families, refined the Seaford skiff.

Throughout the year the community enjoys many events such as the Annual Tree Lighting Ceremony, the Junior League’s Tour of Homes, the Apple Festival, Historical Society’s Heritage Fair and the Chamber's Evenings in Amityville. Most of these activities are located at the center of Amityville, within walking distance to the L.I.R.R. train station. During the summer months, the Village Beach hosts a multitude of activities for children at the Caples Beach Complex.

Come explore the friendly bay village and experience the pleasures and opportunities that abound.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

631/691-1909

Code Enforcement Officers: John Lauria

Thomas Whalen

The building department assures compliance with all village codes as well as adherence to local, county, state and federal laws that fall within its jurisdiction. These codes and laws were created to protect the safety, health and welfare of Village residents and the general public. Permits are necessary for all construction alterations, fences, pools, decks, auxiliary buildings, etc. Applications are available at Village Hall or on the website at www.amityville.com.

TAX DEPARTMENT
631/264-6000

Tax Assessor: Thomas Donato

The tax department collects the village taxes on all properties, updates property assessments and the tax roll, and processes senior citizen and veterans exemption applications. The Village's fiscal year runs June 1 through May 31st. Taxes are due the first day of June. Having adopted a split payment method, property owners may pay the first half of their village taxes within the month of June and the second half within the month of December. Applications for veterans exemption and senior citizens exemption are available at Village Administration or on our website at www.amityville.com. To qualify for the senior citizen exemption you must be at least 65 years old and your income cannot exceed $32,400. All applications for exemption must be received by December 31st. Annual Grievance Day is the 3rd Tuesday in February.

AMITYVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT

21 Ireland Place, 631/264-0400 911 for Emergency
24 hours a day, 7 days a week

Chief of Police: Donald J. Dobby, Jr.

Amityville is one of the few villages on Long Island that has its own police department. The philosophy under which the department was formed - to serve and protect the people of Amityville—is as much a strength within Amityville today as it was more than a century ago when the department was first formed. Residents are strongly urged to place their house numbers in a visible location where police and emergency services can locate their homes quickly.
